Have You Ever Wondered How the Doctrine of the Church and God's Salvation Plan in Scripture Go Together?

Then join us on "A Journey to Emmaus" as we explore not only what the Church teaches but WHY! The Bible Study Program is offering a 12-week study on the First Pillar of the Catechism: "The Creed", beginning in January, on Monday evenings: 7-9 starting, January 4th, or Thursday mornings, 9:45-11:45am beginning January 21st. We have some extra study kits available for $25. If interested, please call Barbara Turro ASAP at (914) 245-7410. It is a great way to deepen your faith, and be better equipped to share it with others.

For those Experiencing a Crisis Pregnancy:

If you or someone you know is experiencing a crisis pregnancy, please call/email your local Pregnancy Center You may contact the Sisters of Life Visitation Mission to pregnant women (212) 737-0221 or toll free 877-777-1277 or visit <http://visitationcenterus.org/>. The Visitation Mission is a mission of love, in person and by phone, to vulnerable, pregnant women. By providing the emotional and practical resources a woman needs, the Sisters offer an opportunity for women to be able to respond with courage and dignity at one of life's most difficult moments.

Yorktown Community Help wishes to thank the parishioners of St. Patrick's for all the food and gifts that were so generously donated this holiday season. Your support plays a vital role in our ability to provide this important service to our needy neighbors. We are so grateful for your help.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph ✕ December 27, 2015

The flowers that will adorn both Churches for the Christmas Season may be donated in memory of your loved ones. If you receive monthly envelopes, there is a special “flower” envelope in the packet that you can fill out and return to the Rectory. If you do not receive envelopes, they’re available in the vestibule of the Churches. A Mass will be said at 7:30PM on Monday, January 4 for the intentions of all who contributed for the Christmas flowers.

Come & Join Pope Francis in Prayer! Our priests and a group of parishioners meet every weekday morning at 6:30AM in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel in the Main Church. We pray the Liturgy of the Hours (also known as the Divine Office), which is about 15 minutes of prayers, psalms and meditation, and prepares us for the 6:55AM Mass. Other than the Sacraments, it is the single richest prayer resource of the Catholic Church, which is prayed daily by all clergy-including Pope Francis! The purpose is to sanctify the day and all human activity. It is a wonderful way to start your day.

Gift cards are available for ACME, Shoprite, Turco’s and Stop and Shop after all Masses, at both the Stone Church and the Main Church as well as at the Rectory Monday through Friday; 9:00am - 5:00pm. 5% - 7% of your total purchase is returned to St. Patrick’s.

Bereavement Support Group for those who have lost a loved one meets each Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30pm. Healing is effected through means of interacting with others with the knowledge that we are not alone in this life experience. Please call 245-2742 or 245-6488 for further information.

FLOCKNOTE is an effective way for our St. Patrick’s Family to communicate! When you sign up for FLOCKNOTE you will receive important updates from the parish in a timely and convenient way. This new tool we're using lets you choose what info you'd like to receive via email or text message from the various ministries and groups in the parish. You can unsubscribe at any time. You can get started by going to www.flocknote.com/stpatsyorktown or Text: stpats to 84576. If you have any questions, please call Ann-Marie at 962-5050 or Ed Benvenaga at 772-1843 or visit the FLOCKNOTE web site.

Capuchin Youth Leadership Training, January 15-17: CYFM has been providing leadership training for over 37 years. Even teens who don’t consider themselves leaders benefit from the authenticity and skill-training that we offer. The Leadership modules include the practical: effective communication, understanding group dynamics and facilitating groups, developing and delivering effective presentations, enhancing self-esteem, and time management; as well as how to combine all those skills for utilization in Evangelization as authentic Christian leaders. They are prepared and transformed into the people that God is calling them to be! From 7:00pm, January 15 through 4:00pm, January 17, 2016. Cost: $115.00 per person includes lodging, meals, and materials. Application and non-refundable $60.00 deposit due by 1/12/16. Gift Certificates are available for this and for all of our programs! Please visit: cyfm.org. Capuchin Youth & Family Ministries, or call (845) 424-3609 for further information.

St. Joseph’s Corner: Do you want more joy in 2016? The Holy Family can teach you how to have more joy in your family. Where does this joy come from? It comes from knowing that you are loved by God and loving other people the way Jesus, Mary and St. Joseph love. Jesus knew that we needed help to love like His Family so He gave us Holy Mother Church. Ask the Holy Family to “TEACH” you how to love. The word TEACH is also how you can remember the practical ways that your family can become more like the Holy Family in your daily lives.

- T is for complete TRUST in God
- E is for doing EVERYTHING out of love for God
- A is for ASK for God's Mercy
- C is for CONNECT your family to Holy Mother Church
- H is for striving for HOLINESS

The Ministry for Families has materials in the back of the church to help you on your journey to becoming more like the Holy Family.

MERCY ME – PART 2

We had a great start to the Year of Mercy. Quite a few people finished their consecration to Our Lady on December 8th, all the priests were busy for four hours hearing confessions this past Monday, and a good number of those who came to confession had been away from the Sacraments for quite a long time. That means that the Year of Mercy is already a success here at St. Patrick's. And we are just getting started.

As I write this on December 18th, we are preparing for a Holy Hour/Concert by Katy Feeney, renowned Catholic singer and harpist. Katy is going to present "The people of Advent." This is a way for us to remember how the world was prepared for the mercy of God poured out for us in Christ Jesus. Katy will return during Lent and the Easter season to continue the theme of God's mercy.

As I mentioned two weeks ago, the Year of Mercy needs to extend to us. It is wonderful for us to take advantage of God's mercy, but we must also be the extenders of mercy to others. That means offering forgiveness to those who have hurt us. This is, of course, not an easy thing to do, but if we search the Gospels, we find that it is one of the commands that Jesus gives us. We are to forgive as we are forgiven. We say it every day in the Our Father, the prayer given to us directly by Christ. He follows that up in the Gospel by saying, "As you forgive one another, so will your Heavenly Father forgive you." In fact, Jesus speaks about the need to forgive on several occasions, and he shows us the way to do it by forgiving even his torturers from the cross! If Jesus can do that, and He was the sinless Son of God, why can't we, who are sinners ourselves, forgive the shortcomings of others?

Don't get me wrong – it may not happen immediately. After all, some hurts are tremendously big. Broken promises, abusive relationships, etc. can be very hard to come to terms with, and yet, if we really want to live the Gospel to the fullest, we need to forgive those who have hurt us, even gravely.

We need also remember that forgiving doesn't immediately mean forgetting. Like a scar that happens after we suffer a wound, the memories of the hurt may linger. When these memories return, it is time to pray – for ourselves and for the person we have forgiven. God tells us that He forgives and forgets. While it may take a while for that to happen, we should try and do the same.

This week we have celebrated the coming of God as man, the beginning of the manifestation of God's mercy in human form. We also look forward to a brand new year. As we continue to mark these events, let us think long and hard about people we may need to forgive from the heart. Pray for the grace to do that, for if we ask God to grant us mercy, He will do it.

God bless you and Happy New Year.
