St. Joseph's Corner:

Daily life can be a living prayer to God when little things are done out of love. Blessed Mother Teresa said "Jesus went about doing good. And we are trying to imitate Him now because I believe that God loves the world through us. Just as He sent Jesus to be His love, His presence in the world, so today He is sending us." ("Words to Love By", written by Mother Teresa). Remember, God sends us first to bring His love to our families. Try to see Jesus in your spouse, children, grandparents and all of the people that the Holy Spirit places in your path. Bring God's graces to a world starving for His love.

*****

Year of Mercy: What does it mean to be God's love in the world by doing the Spiritual Act of Mercy "Counsel the Doubtful"? Everyone sometimes feels overwhelmed and alone. During these hard times, people can begin to doubt if Jesus is with them. Sometimes all that a "doubtful" person needs is a kind word or a smile to remember that they are loved by Jesus. During this Year of Mercy, give God permission to make you one of His instruments of peace.

*****

St. Augustine said it best: "Those who sing pray twice." Consider becoming part of one of our choirs. It's a great way to do something extra for Lent – and maybe beyond!
