St. Patrick's Library has a wide selection of wonderful videos which you can borrow for a full week, free of charge, and return to the Rectory. The library is not open at set hours during the summer, but our videos and books are available. Call Betty at (914) 245-7253 for information, a printed video list, and to have items left for you at the Rectory. You can also make an appointment to visit the library.

Have you signed up for ParishPay?

In lieu of weekly envelopes, the ParishPay program will collect monthly contributions from your checking, savings, or credit card account. There is no cost to participate in the program. You may even earn points on your credit card. Enroll at www.parishpay.com or through the Parish Finance Office. Information: Tobie Staib at 962-5050 ext 15 or stpatricksfinance@gmail.com.

Food Store Gift Cards are available before and after all Masses, at both the Stone Church and the Main Church. A&P, Turco's, Shoprite and Stop & Shop food cards are also available at the Rectory Monday through Friday; 9:00am - 5:00pm. 5 - 7% of your purchase is returned to St. Patrick's.

Year of Mercy: Our Act of Mercy for the month of July is "Visit the Sick". Each day we are all called as Christians to look out into the world and see if there is any way that we can help our neighbors. However, sometimes we get so engrossed in our own problems that we fail to recognize the suffering of people even in our own families. Today, let's ask for the grace from the Holy Spirit to see our neighbors through the eyes of Jesus so that we can bring His love to those who need it.

If you are already a part of this ministry, then you know how much happiness going to Adoration can bring you. Are there friends and family that you can invite to share in this ministry? A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I am settling in here and I already feel very comfortable. As I mentioned at Mass last weekend, I truly feel like a new member of the parish family. Our Catholic faith is such that we are one body in Christ by our Baptism. Those ties that bind us together in the family of the Church will never go away. We may not always feel them as strongly at every moment in our lives, but the communion with Christ and one another will last for all eternity. As one small example, I had to leave Sacred Heart parish in Suffern last week but I feel very much connected to the people of that parish, as I feel connected now to all of you. Jesus will keep us close to Himself and to one another. Our faith which comes from Christ is a true blessing.

I will be unpacking for a while which brings back many memories. Pictures especially remind me of family and friends and important moments. In the past few weeks, I have had many farewell events in Suffern and in these days I am receiving a warm welcome here at Saint Patrick's. I was in Suffern for ten years but I have had to move several times from one place to another over 29 years of Priesthood and even before that. I packed up in 1983 to go to the major seminary in Rome and I had to return to Rome several times for further study and work. I have also held assignments in places like Paris and the Ivory Coast in Africa, St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers and the Catholic Chaplaincy at Columbia University. I thank God for all of the opportunities to serve His Church in different places and I continue to thank God for my assignment here. Please know that it is my desire to serve you with all my heart at all times and in every way. I may fall short at times but I will always try to allow God's grace to help me to bring you His presence. Let's pray for each other.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Msgr. Joseph R. Giandurco
