A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I am going to report on several news items about the parish in a few paragraphs.

First, I want to state that the Day of Mercy went very well last Saturday. Several hundred people were here for the afternoon of prayer which began with Exposition and the Cardinal's talk. There followed an Examination of Conscience by a Missionary of Mercy Priest and talks by parishioners about the Midnight Run and the Bereavement group. Confessions were heard by ten priests for over an hour. There was the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction. It was very prayerful.

At 5:15pm, we had the Vigil Mass and the Cardinal was the Main Celebrant and homilist. I was honored when His Eminence installed me as pastor. (My parents seemed especially happy!) I thank the Lord for all the blessings.

In fact, since there were many parishes represented that day, we will have our own time to Thank God for the many blessings of this parish. The 12:30 pm Mass on October 16th will be a special celebration followed by a reception. Giving thanks and celebrating our parish is as important as gathering with other parishes at times.

On another note, know that over the course of four days last week many of our parishioners staffed the Zeppole booth at the Yorktown Heights Feast of San Gennaro. That was hard work for them, including Fr. Tom. A big "Thank You" to all the volunteers. It was a rousing fundraising success for the parish. Many people enjoyed themselves too!

Cardinal Dolan also stopped at the Feast and blessed the San Gennaro statue from Manhattan. I also saw how many babies and people of all ages he blessed. It was a great moment for the Feast and the town.

In addition to all the special events taking place these days, St. Patrick's School and the Religious Education Program are in full swing. Many other groups started up again as well. It is amazing how many activities take place in the parish every day. This is a vibrant parish.

Thank you for the wonderful support of the parish and other causes as well. The Mission Appeal this weekend by a sister of The Adorer Missionary Sisters of the Poor is another opportunity for us to build up another part of the Church. As the Year of Mercy continues, let us do all we can to help one another live our faith.

Sincerely in Christ,
