A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

There are a few different topics I would like to mention in these notes this week.

First, a word about the upcoming elections and our Catholic faith. I quote the Bishops of the United States: "Sometimes it seems few candidates and no party fully reflect our values. But now is not a time for retreat. The new millennium should be an opportunity for renewed participation. We must challenge all parties and every candidate to defend human life and dignity, to pursue greater justice and peace, to uphold family life and to advance the common good."

That whole quote is very edifying but it may not help us, as Catholics, decide for whom to vote. Pope Francis has said all people should pray about their choices and follow their conscience. (Conscience should be "informed" by Church teaching.) For some people, that may mean not voting for certain candidates even if it means not voting at all for a certain office. These are difficult times and we have to ask for the Lord's guidance in such matters. The Lord is always with us, no matter who our earthly leaders are.

Closer to home, here in the parish, it seems that all is going well. Our parishioners are very generous and many are involved in various activities here. Beginning with attendance at Mass, we gather here in Jesus' name.

We ask blessings on all the young parishioners confirmed this weekend by Bishop Lagonegro. The Holy Spirit will help them live their faith. May the Spirit help us all to follow Jesus.

I could go on at length but in a couple of weeks, we will print the Pastor's Annual Report to the parish. This is my first report at St. Patrick's but it will build upon the work of so many.

Next Sunday, November 6 at 2:00pm in the Church Hall, the Parish Council and I are sponsoring a Town Hall meeting, not political but parochial and spiritual. All are invited to participate. May God bless us all. May God Bless America.

Sincerely in Christ,
