Easter Prayer

Lord, the resurrection of Your Son has given us new life and renewed hope.
 Help us to live as new people in pursuit of the Christian ideal.
 Grant us wisdom to know what we must do,
 the will to want to do it,
 the courage to undertake it,
 the perseverance to continue to do it,
 and the strength to complete it.

UNANNOUNCED MASS INTENTIONS:
Deceased: Mary Margaret DeBona, Judith Dowd, Anthony Jude Magpayo, Howard Miller, Patricia Mahoney, Andrew Gerety Lamb, Jr.,

"I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die."

St. Joseph's Corner: Happy Easter! This is a time to celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord! This is our chance as Christians to recommit ourselves to living our faith. But what does "living our faith" really mean? Each day we wake up with the opportunity to grow closer to God and our neighbors. One of the best ways to start our days is to make a morning offering. This should be done immediately upon waking. There are many possible prayers to use. Some suggestions are: "Praise to You, Lord, Jesus Christ, for letting me see the light of another day!" or "Serviam!" (which is Latin for "I will serve"). This will counteract when Satan said "I will not serve". The point is to make the day a gift to God and to ask for His help!

In this Year of Mercy: As we try to practice the works of mercy each day, it is especially important that we remember to follow Christ's example of sacrificial love. This month we have been highlighting the Spiritual Work of Mercy "Admonish Sinners". We cannot expect the "sinners" that we are trying to help to listen to us unless we reach out to them in the spirit of love. So let's remember the words of Blessed Mother Teresa (in "Words to Love by..." by Blessed Mother Teresa) who said "Jesus went about doing good. And we are trying to imitate Him now because I believe that God loves the world through us."

Parents of Infants and Pre-Schoolers:

You and your children are invited to visit our Parentcare Program. Join us on either Monday or Wednesday mornings from 9:45 to 11:30am in the Parish Center Hall. Divine Mercy Sunday: The Sunday after Easter (April 3rd this year) is Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope John Paul II instituted Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Church in response to the marvelous mercy of our Redeemer as revealed to St. Faustina. On Divine Mercy Sunday, at 2:30pm in the Stone Church, there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Daytime Prayer of the Liturgy of the Hours will be prayed. At 3:00pm, we will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, followed by scripture and a reflection. The celebration will end with Benediction.

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

From the desk of Fr. Tom Kreiser

COME TO THE FEAST (NOT)

I would like to share with you a quote that I received some time ago from a friend of mine. It comes from Frederick Buechner:

“Of the seven deadly sins, anger is perhaps the most fun. To lick your wounds, to smack your lips over grievances long past, to roll over your tongue the prospect of bitter confrontations still to come, to savor the last toothsome morsel of both the pain you are given and the pain you are giving back – in many ways it is a feast fit for a king. The chief drawback is that what you are wolfing down is yourself. The skeleton at the feast is you.”

In the month of April, we will be focusing on the work of mercy that says “Forgive offenses” and “bear wrongs patiently.” These two things probably bring us the most anger of anything in the world. And this quote reminds us that anger is possibly the most dangerous of all the emotions.

Anger can eat us alive. It gets us all riled up, and then we can sit and think about what we are going to do or say to the one who has harmed us. We can spend hours or days, or sometimes even years, ruminating over something that someone has done to us, or over some bad habit that another person has. We plan out our confrontation, or our revenge (even if we won’t carry it out), and we think to ourselves how we will “get back” at the other person.

The reality is, they are not sitting around thinking about you. They have done what they have done and have more than likely moved on. They are not worrying about us, and what we think or what we will do. Sometimes that is because they don’t care and sometimes because they are not even aware that they have hurt us.

Don’t get me wrong – hurt is real. And sometimes it is a very deep and painful hurt that might have been inflicted by one we care about deeply. I am not saying that we don’t have a right to hurt. We just need to, with God’s help, get past the hurt and forgive those who have caused it. This is God’s command. To forgive our enemies and those who have hurt us is a clear directive that Jesus gives us. Easy – no. Possible – not without God, but with Him, absolutely.

To forgive offenses and bear wrongs patiently may be the hardest of all the works of mercy. But they are the most powerful of them all as well. To be like Christ, who forgave from the cross, makes us holy. If we remind ourselves that we too have hurt others, and that our sins are part of what Jesus suffered and died for, perhaps we will find it easier to open that door of forgiveness to another. Give it a try. You might find that you feel better. Don’t come to the feast of anger, but to the feast of forgiveness.

On this Easter Sunday, when we celebrate the release from our own sins, let us make a commitment to release others from theirs. God bless you and Happy Easter!
