St. Joseph's Corner: Do you wish your family members were closer to God? There are ways that you can help the people in your life have more peace and happiness. First, you can pray for them. God listens to our prayers. Second, the way you live your life can be a powerful witness to the ways that God works miracles each day. We may not realize it, but people pay attention to how those of us who call ourselves Christian live each day. They look at how we live our lives to decide if Jesus matters. Let us all ask Our Blessed Mother for the graces necessary to love our friends and family with the arms of Jesus so that we lead them to Our Lord.

*****

In This Year of Mercy: Our Act of Mercy for the month of June is "Visit the Imprisoned". One of the best ways to help those who are in prison is to bring them God's merciful love. This month we are collecting religious items to donate to a priest who works in a prison ministry. Catholic bibles are always in need. Please consider buying at least one Catholic bible and placing it in the donation basket at the back of the Main Church. If we all work together, we can help many of our imprisoned brothers and sisters by bringing them the Word of God.

TRANSITIONS

It is going to be an interesting summer. With the announcement of Fr. Bisignano's and Fr. Pomeisl's new assignments, and the coming of Msgr Giandurco, our parish will be undergoing a great deal of transition in the next few weeks. In addition, Fr. Raphael will be returning from Jamaica to help us for the summer.

Transitions are sometimes difficult. We get used to things as they are and we often do not want them to change. In a parish, we get used to the way one priest preaches and acts, and then, all of a sudden, we are forced to change directions and get used to someone new. It can make us nervous and, sometimes, upset.

To be honest, I am a little nervous myself. I have gotten used to the priests that I live with, and now have to look forward to someone new who I don't know as well as those who are leaving. Things like that can cause us a little anxiety.

It got me thinking, however, that sometimes our spiritual life is like that. Sometimes it needs a transition, so that we can become holier, closer to God than we are now. God sometimes "shakes us up" in our spiritual lives. He allows us to undergo a trial or a change that can be unsettling. Not that God causes these things directly, but He does allow us to be challenged in order to increase our trust in Him. And when we do, look out. We find that the new place we wind up in is not only different from where we were, but much better. Our challenges become blessings, and we realize when we get past them that, if we have let God have His way, we are indeed holier, closer to Him than we have ever been before. The journey can be rough, there is no doubt. Illness, hurt, brokenness, disappointment, are all part of what life throws at us. But if we turn our will and our lives over to the care of God, He will never disappoint us. His grace will be enough to get us through any hard times that we experience, and when we come out the other side, we will realize that God disguises blessings in those hardships we endure.

The change of seasons is a transition too. As I do at the beginning of every summer, I want to encourage everyone to include Sunday Mass in your vacation planning. Masstimes.org is a wonderful help to finding Catholic churches throughout the country so that you don't miss Sunday Mass. While a vacation is a wonderful opportunity to get away and rest, we don't take a vacation from being a Christian, nor from following the commandment to "Keep holy the Sabbath day." And remember to take a summer trip to confession as well. Our spirits need rest and renewal as much as our body does, and Mass and Confession will help us over the summer to keep in touch with our faith and to grow closer to God.

A note of congratulations to all those who graduate grammar school, high school and college this Spring. This is another type of transition, and can be both exciting and nerve racking. Just remember that, no matter where life brings you, you always have a home in the Church, and particularly at St. Patrick's.

Lastly, I want to invite everyone to celebrate Fr. Bisignano's transition by coming to his farewell Mass, which will take place on Saturday, June 18th at 5:15. Father has dedicated the last 11 years of his priesthood to the people of Saint Patrick's and it is fitting that we honor him before he goes. A light reception will follow to wish him well.

Fr. Pomeisl will also have a farewell Mass and reception. This will be sometime in September. remember my first parish as a priest. Leaving can be very difficult. We have helped to shape Fr. Pomeisl, and he certainly has done a great deal to enrich our faith community. Details for this celebration will be made known when we have them.

Hoping you all enjoyed the beautiful weather this week. God bless you.
