2016-2017 Parish Calendar: All Parish Service Ministries and Organizations are asked to submit their calendar and facilities requests for the 2016-2017 year to the Rectory. Do not assume you have the same location/time as last year. Please also be advised that we cannot schedule activities that will coincide with or overlap our weekend Masses. As everyone is aware, our parking facilities are already stretched to their limit. All requests MUST include the contact person's name & phone number(s).

Year of Mercy: Our Act of Mercy for the month of July is “Visit the Sick”. Sometimes it's easy to get wrapped up in all of the fun of summer that we forget those around us who are suffering from physical, mental or spiritual sickness. However, each of us is called to ask God for the grace to have the eyes of Jesus and see ways we can help those in need.

If you have a family member or friend in the hospital, even if you can't physically visit them, a card, phone call or your prayers can bring them God's graces to allow Him to give them peace and strength during their suffering. Let us all ask the Holy Spirit to show us ways that we can be God's Mercy in the world.

St. Patrick's Religious Education is in need of Catechists for next year. We have classes Monday from 4:30-5:45pm and 6:15pm-7:30pm, and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 4:30pm-5:45pm. We need Catechists for all grades. If interested, call Kelly at 962-5586. You do not need to be a teacher, just someone who loves our Lord and the Catholic faith!

St. Patrick's Library Summer time, and the children are looking for things to do. What a wonderful opportunity to introduce them to our videos! These DVD's are entertaining, inspiring and educational. Please call Betty at 245-7253 for information, a printed video list, and to have items left for you at the Rectory.

EARN (Employment Assistance & Resource Network) will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday, July 7 at 7:25pm in the Parish Center Hall. Expect to gain valuable insights into your job search. Visit: www.earnatstpats.com.

A Note from the new Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I will be stopping by at all the Masses this weekend to say hello but I simply want to assure you that, even though I feel a little sad to leave Suffern, I feel blessed to have been appointed your new pastor. I am grateful to Father Bisignano and Msgr. Brennan, the two previous pastors whom I know, for all their years of service to the parish. I pray that I will be able to follow their example of doing good things here and become part of the family. I look forward to working with Father Tom Kreiser, whom I also know, and the other priests who will be here for the summer and beyond. It almost goes without saying but we all have God's work to do. The wonderful truth is that we can rely on God's help!

You are already in my prayers and I know you will soon be in my heart. I know you have to meet me first but I also know that our faith, and the love of God, will carry us forward together. His love never fails! God bless!

Sincerely in Christ,

Msgr. Joseph R. Giandurco

Grace Solazzo

Daniel & Grace have satisfactorily completed in St. Patrick's School the course of study prescribed for the elementary schools by the Archdiocese of New York and the State Education Department, and were awarded diplomas.

Due to a typing error their names were not listed correctly in last week's bulletin. Sorry for this oversight. Congratulations to all our Graduates!

From the Desk of Fr. Joseph Bisignano,

The Preface of the Chrism Mass states in part: "For Christ not only adorns with a royal priesthood the people he has made his own, but with a brother's kindness he also chooses men to become sharers in his sacred ministry through the laying on of hands." These men are not worthy to serve God by serving His people yet even though they are sinners they are called "to set before His children the paschal banquet, to lead His holy people in charity, to nourish them with the word and strengthen them with the Sacraments." There is nothing in this world that is more glorious than to be called to serve Him by serving His people. I love being a priest! But at the same time there is nothing more humbling than to serve His people.

With all my foibles and my failures you have still let me share in your joys and in your sorrows not because I am Joe Bisignano but because I am a priest. I have no right to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and yet God uses my voice and actions both to teach and to sanctify; to preach His word and to feed you with His Body and His Blood. For the times He has used me to touch you, I give Him praise and for the times I have failed you, I am truly sorry. Second only to the words 'this is my body and this is my blood' are the words of absolution 'I absolve you from all your sins; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.' I find it humbling to kneel before another sinner and to acknowledge my own sins but I find it even more humbling when I say the words of absolution. His mercy endures forever!

The role of pastor in such a large and diversified parish is daunting but a lot of you are so gifted that I found that most of the times, if I got out of your way, you and the activity would flourish and benefit the whole parish. For this I want to express my thanks to you - so many of you actually made me look good - and that is quite an accomplishment.

There is only one disappointment that I acknowledge and that is not being able to work with you in improving the sanctuary. It does need a lot of work which, of course translates into a need for funds (money) and an overall plan that will enhance your worship. But the Archdiocese is requiring every parish to have an Archdiocesan campaign and I pray that you will support your new pastor when he will announce such an endeavor.

God loves you and I pray that that love permeates every part of your entire being: mind, soul, body, heart, and spirit. May He continue to bless you, and those you love. I share His love for all of you, peace!
