Jesus, remind me to thank those who help me reach my goals. And show me how to extend a hand to others.

Year of Mercy: Our Act of Mercy for the month of July is "Visit the Sick". Let us ask the Holy Spirit for the courage to open our eyes to see all of the suffering in the people around us. Sometimes, we fear coming close to the pain of others, so we ignore those in need. We think that there is nothing we can do - so we don't try. But Blessed Mother Teresa said "It is not how much we do, but how much love we put in the doing." (Words to Love by...written by Mother Teresa). In this Year of Mercy, we should strive even harder to be Christ's Hands of Mercy to the world by doing little things out of great love. Perhaps your visit, call or letter to a sick family member or friend makes them realize how much God loves them.

A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

One of the phrases Jesus said most often in the Gospels is “Do not be Afraid.” In our times, as followers of Christ, we have to think of those words often because the world can be a scary place with all of the violence we hear about everyday. Throughout the history of the world, there have been violent and frightening times, but for us, it is difficult to remember such striking news of terror. Of course, since the Second World War, there have been other wars and upheavals, but in the last several years, we learn more and more about the most brutal kinds of terror and, most recently, killings of police officers in our own country. We all know of the protests and civil strife, starting way back in the 1960's, but it seems to be escalating and re-surfacing with a vengeance. There is less and less a sense of safety and peace. Perhaps we can still think about such things happening elsewhere, and not where we live, but the more terrorists strike random targets in every part of the world, the more it seems it can happen anywhere at any time. In addition, the more fear and anger build up, the more it seems people turn to violence.

It is at times like these that we have to remember those words of Jesus, and be united in faith, hope and charity. Our faith is our consolation. This begins with our family of faith in our homes, our parish, and the whole Church. Jesus also said, “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body but are not able to kill the soul” (Matthew 10:28). That is a rather amazing saying. Without faith, the body is all we human beings would have. With faith, we truly believe we are made of body and soul, created in the image and likeness of God. As much as we want to protect and nourish our bodies, we should be even more concerned about our soul which is meant to last forever. In truth, we have to look after one another, both body and soul.

Do not be afraid, but trust in Jesus and ask him to protect, bless and guide us. We pray for those who have died, we pray for those who suffer, and we pray for one another that Jesus may strengthen our hearts and souls.

Sincerely in Christ,

Msgr. Joseph R. Giandurco
