A Note from the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you have had the opportunity to see the Pastor's Annual Report to the Parish which was an insert in last weekend's bulletin. There are some loose copies available in the back of the church and the Report is on the parish website. The Report shows that our parish is strong and I trust everyone agrees that this is a wonderful family in Christ. As long as we continue to gather in Christ's name and seek to do His will, nothing can separate us from God's love.

I have news to share about a seminarian coming to spend some time in our parish. Seminarian Rufus Kenny was recently ordained a Deacon for the Archdiocese of New York. He is one of five men to be ordained Priests in May 2017. Deacon Kenny will be spending a good part of each weekend with us beginning November 26th until late April 2017. He will be preaching at some Masses and assisting in other ways as pastoral preparation for Priestly Ordination. I consider Deacon Kenny's assignment here at St. Patrick's to be a blessing for him and for us. The Archdiocese is aware of how vibrant this parish is and the hope is that pastoral work here will introduce him to the life of an active, faith-filled parish. I am certain that we will all welcome him warmly and that we will pray for him as he moves closer to becoming a priest for God's Church.

Let us pray for all of the seminarians studying for the Archdiocese of New York, including our own Anthony Marcella in Second Theology and all of the seminarians around the world. In these challenging times, we need holy vocations and holy priests.

As the Holy Year of Mercy concludes today, we trust in God's continued help in living our faith. While the Holy Year ends, God's mercy and goodness never end. The Priesthood and the sacraments are some of the most powerful ways that God helps and guides us. We should seek to follow in Jesus' path of mercy always.

Sincerely in Christ,
